CIBC FIRSTCARIBBEAN LAUNCHES MASTERCARD BLACK CREDIT CARD

Kingston, Jamaica, December 2, 2022 - Clients of CIBC FirstCaribbean flocked the Terra Nova Hotel for the launch of its latest luxury credit card, the Mastercard Black.

“This is no ordinary credit card” indicated CIBC FirstCaribbean’s Managing Director, Nigel Holness. “It is exclusive, provides the convenience of increased spending power and the benefits are complimented by a luxurious lifestyle”. Holness elaborated that the card also offers:

- Four (4) free airport lounge visits annually
- Boingo wifi which provides global access to over 1 million hotspots
- Purchase protection with delivery coverage
- Trip delay luggage protection and travel insurance

“All CIBC FirstCaribbean Mastercard Black Cardholders are automatically enrolled in the CIBC FirstCaribbean MYREWARDS Programme where they will be able to earn 1 point for each US$1 spent on eligible transactions. The points may be redeemed for airline tickets, hotel accommodation, online purchases and contactless transactions using a virtual points card.”

For his part, Director of Retail Banking Channels, CIBC FirstCaribbean, Owen Francis noted that the launch of the CIBC FirstCaribbean Mastercard Black represents another major achievement of the bank in 2022.

“This has been a year in which we made a host of enhancements to our online banking platform, delivering new technologies, enhanced product offerings and faster service for our personal and business clients,” he said.

Francis further stated that there has been advanced usability on the bank’s online banking platform enabling individuals to receive updates on transactions for credit cards and loan accounts.’

Master of Ceremonies for the evening, Annique Dawkins, Head of Corporate Jamaica, Corporate Investment Banking, CIBC FirstCaribbean, emphasized that “CIBC FirstCaribbean is a relationship bank which seeks to provide the best, most efficient, effective and convenient way to shop and pay bills especially as we approach the festive season. You now have the best solution at your fingertips - the CIBC FirstCaribbean Mastercard Black Credit Card.”
