

CIBC Empowers Centro Juve International Cup: Fostering The Development Of Young Soccer Players

Willemstad - The upcoming Centro Juve International Cup presents an opportunity for young athletes to engage in an enriching international competition, cultivating invaluable experiences for lifelong growth.

At CIBC (operating under CIBC FirstCaribbean in the Dutch Caribbean), we recognize the significance of nurturing talent from an early age, fostering not only exceptional athletes but also contributing members of society. Scheduled from March 29 through March 31, the Centro Juve International Cup takes place at Sentro Deportivo Kòrsou, welcoming teams from Aruba, Bonaire, and Sint Maarten.

Established nearly five years ago, Centro Juve has flourished, boasting a team of over 250 youth soccer players. Offering comprehensive training programs for children aged 2 to 15 at Marie Pampoen, Centro Juve epitomizes excellence with its international affiliations and has won championship titles in Aruba and Sint Maarten.

This year marks the inaugural Centro Juve International Cup as a celebration of it uniting teams from Aruba, Bonaire, and Sint Maarten. The event promises to showcase the finest young talent and coaches across categories U 9 to U 17. As young athletes grace the fields across the island, the competition will also draw coaches and parents.

CIBC's partnership with Centro Juve underscores its commitment to youth development, building upon the success of initiatives like the Future Cup Curaçao, where local teams competed.

The public is invited to celebrate the spirit of youth, sportsmanship at the Centro Juve International Cup 2024.
