

CIBC Caribbean Appoints Terrance Gibson Head of Country

Nassau, Bahamas, 4 May 2026 – CIBC Caribbean has announced the appointment of Terrance Gibson as Head of Country for The Bahamas.

As Head of Country, Gibson will have overall responsibility for the bank's operations, strategic direction, and business performance in The Bahamas. He will also continue to oversee the Director, Personal and Business Banking portfolio until that position is filled.

Gibson brings more than 30 years of experience in the banking industry. His background spans retail, corporate and investment banking, personal credit risk management and wealth management, supported by a strong track record of leadership and performance.

In his most recent capacity, Gibson held senior leadership responsibilities across the region, including oversight of teams in The Bahamas, Barbados and the Turks and Caicos Islands. He has consistently led efforts to strengthen client relationships, drive business growth, and support team development.

CIBC Caribbean's Chief Country Management Officer, Donna Wellington, said, "We are pleased to have Terrance step into this important leadership role in The Bahamas. His extensive experience, strong leadership, and deep understanding of the regional banking landscape position him well to lead our operations. I am confident he will continue to strengthen our client relationships and our presence in the community."

Gibson holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in Computer Information Systems from Baruch College and a Master of Business Administration from Nova Southeastern University. He has also completed several executive training programs, including a Senior Leadership Development Program. His appointment as Head of Country is effective April 24, 2026.
